Anglican Observance Of Mothering Sunday

Mothering Sunday, not to be confused with Canadian Mother's Day, is celebrated in Anglican Churches on the fourth Sunday in Lent.

It is a very old liturgical feast known by several names over the ages: Laetare Sunday to honor the Virgin Mary, Refreshment Sunday, Rose Sunday and Mothering Sunday. It dates back to the custom in England when domestic servants in the grand houses of the landed gentry were permitted to go home to visit their home church and mothers. Often the housekeeper or cook would allow the maids to bake a cake to take home for their mother. Sometimes a gift of eggs or flowers from the garden (or hothouse) was allowed. Or they may have picked a bunch of wildflowers from the wayside, violets especially.

In Canada Mothers' Union branches observe Mothering Sunday by distributing flowers to mothers and serving the traditional simnel cake and/or cookies during the coffee hour. Simnel cake is a light fruit cake made with a layer of marzipan in the middle and if desired a layer on top which is decorated with 11 marzipan balls representing the 12 apostles minus Judas, who betrayed Christ. If 12 balls are used, the 12th one is to represent Jesus.

Today's Cycle of Prayer

Sisters and brothers,
as Jesus, in the days before his passion,
offered prayers and supplications with loud cries
and tears,
let us pray for those who suffer, those who are in need, and those who seek reconciliation.

For those celebrating special occasions:

An end to violence & terrorism in all parts of the world; for those being persecuted; for all refugees; for all affected by natural disasters, for our Queen, Prime Minister and all those in authority.

Our military and their families currently serving at home & abroad, for all our Anglican Chaplains and their Bishop Military Ordinate.

In our Anglican Communion in the World we pray for The Church of England.

In our Diocese of Ottawa we pray for

- Fred our Primate (Anglican Church of Canada), Colin our Metropolitan, John our Diocesan Bishop, and Rob our Minister.
- For the Anglican Fellowship of Prayer, Martin Luther Lutheran Church, and for all parish secretaries & parish administrators in our diocese.
- In our Deanery we pray for St Stephen's - Micksburg.
- For the churches and other faith communities in our area this week we pray for St John's Lutheran Church.

The life and members of our own parish. This week we pray especially for ... and all members of their families.

The children and youth of our community.

The sick...

... and all those we hold close in our hearts.
