SHROVE TUESDAY: shrove past tense of the English verb shrive, to obtain absolution. Shrove Tuesday gets its name from the custom for Christians to be "shriven" before the start of Lent. Pancakes, Fat Tuesday, Mardis Gras, are feasts to use up the fat, butter and rich foods before Lent.

ASH WEDNESDAY derives its name from the practice of placing ashes on the foreheads as a reminder of our mortality, and as a sign of mourning and repentance to God. The ashes used are typically gathered from the burning of the palms from the previous year.
